International Art Medal Federation
Fédération Internationale de la Médaille d'Art

Guidelines for FIDEM Executive and Consultative Committee members

The composition of FIDEM's Executive Committee and matters relating to processes and election to the Committee are covered in Articles V and VI of the FIDEM Statutes.

The responsibilities of members of the Executive Committee are as follows:

1. To help FIDEM fulfil its aims.
2. To advise the President on all matters relating to FIDEM.
3. To attend FIDEM Executive Committee meetings as often as possible and, when this is not possible, to offer advice and suggestions through correspondence with the General Secretary.
4. To attend FIDEM congresses whenever possible.
5. To help ensure in whatever ways possible that the FIDEM programme of congresses, exhibitions and other activities is successfully realised.
6. To take every opportunity to promote medallic art.
7. To conduct themselves in a manner that reflects well on FIDEM.
8. To continue their FIDEM membership by punctual payment of the subscription.

The composition of FIDEM's Consultative Committee and matters relating to election to the Committee are covered in Article IX of the FIDEM Statutes.

The responsibilities of members of the Consultative Committee are as follows:

1. To help FIDEM fulfil its aims.
2. To advise the Executive Committee on all matters relating to FIDEM.
3. To attend FIDEM Executive and Consultative Committee meetings as often as possible and, when this is not possible, to offer advice and suggestions through correspondence with the General Secretary.
4. To attend FIDEM congresses whenever possible.
5. To help ensure in whatever ways possible that the FIDEM programme of congresses, exhibitions and other activities is successfully realised.
6. To take every opportunity to promote medallic art.
7. To conduct themselves in a manner that reflects well on FIDEM.
8. To continue their FIDEM membership by punctual payment of the subscription.

PA/06/12/2019